Wren Ashby

Wren Ashby · born 3 March 2026 at 04:12, Bristol · Sun in Pisces, Water, Mutable

Wren arrived while the Sun was in Pisces, the twelfth sign of the zodiac and the last of the water signs. Pisces is traditionally the sign of imagination, music and tenderness, pictured as two fish swimming in different directions yet bound by a single cord.

Water signs are linked in the old symbolism with feeling and intuition, and Pisces is the gentlest of them. Its traditional ruler is Jupiter, the planet of generosity and wide horizons.

This keepsake records the day, the hour and the place, so that one day Wren can read where the sky stood when the story began.
